INDEX TO VOLUME 34

Page numbers indicate the month of issue as follows: September, 1-64; October, 65-128; November, 129-192; December, 193-256; January, 257-320; February, 321-384; March, 385-448; April, 449-512; May, 513-576.

Abernethy, Francis E., on "The Case for and against Sci-Fi," 474
"About Adolescent Boys and Their Attitudes," by Robert G. Andree, 23
"Academic Rigor: 1927 v. 1957," by Harold H. Lerch, 242
Administrators, key people in education, 289
Adolescent boys, attitudes toward school and life analyzed in study by University of Michigan and Boy Scouts, 23
Adolescents, ask themselves three introspective questions in early teens, 156
Adult education, Christmas party can add zest to evening program, 197
Advanced placement program: can be improvised if no formal program exists, 465; example of school-college co-operation, 518
"Afternoon in the Animal Kingdom," poem, by A. S. Flaumenhaft, 35
American High School Today, the, by James Bryant Conant, critical review of, 178
"American Valhalla," poem, by A. S. Flaumenhaft, 73
Ames, Maurice U., on "Teaching Science by Television," 6
Anderson, Harold S., on "Prospective Teachers Have Fears," 337
Anderson, John R., on "Reading Skills of College Entrants," 15
Andree, Robert G., writes "About Adolescent Boys and Their Attitudes," 23
Application blanks, see Job application blanks
"Are Our Schools Doing Too Much?" by Bernard Leibson, 49
Arone, Frank T.: on "Developing Critical Thinking in the Junior High School," 456; on "More to Know About Hawaii," 539
Athletics: school's program aided by men's association, 404; waning interest in competitive team athletics in schools, 526
"Attitudes Toward Science Teaching," by Thomas M. Weiss, 531
Audio-visual experts, not usually qualified to serve as school's instructional materials expert, 134
"Audio-Visual News," 62, 126, 190, 254, 318, 382, 446, 511, 566
"Australia's Secondary Schools Are Not Regarded as Exemplary," by A. L. McLeod, 36
"Autopsy of a Dead Lesson," by Edwin J. Swineford, 71

Bagley, William C., friend and critic of American professional education, 345
"Ballad of an English Teacher in Orbit," by B. Jo Kinnick, 407
Bardon, Jack I., on "School Psychologists—a Rejoinder," 528
Barham, Thomas C., on "Ignore the Social Studies?" 453
Barnes, Jean, on "I Had to Use a Tape Recorder," 245
Barnett, Phyllis M. (coauthor), on "Why I Am a Teacher," 97
Baugh, Kathryne, on "Our World-Wide Responsibilities," 202
"B.C.H.S. Men's Association," by Virgil E. Tompkins, 404
Beasley, Wilbur S., on "It's Time to Study Time Payments," 451
Behavior: guide worked out at Redlands Junior High School, 292; insecurity at home reflected in classroom, 294; notable differences between children from different cultural levels, 521; see also Discipline
Belding, Robert E.: on "Réné's Schooling," 224; on "Lloyd Sanford and His Schooling," 552
Ben-Hur, movie review, 442
Berry, June, on "Letter to a New English Teacher," 343
Besvinick, Sidney L., on "An Effective Daily Lesson Plan," 431
Bethlehem Central High School Men's Association, aids school's athletic program, 404
"Better School-College Relations," by Paul J. Newman, 353
Biddle, Bette G., on "Intelligence and Our Commercial Students," 481
Bingham, Mary, participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 147
Book reviews, 54, 118, 182, 247, 310, 373, 436, 502, 559
Boy Scouts of America, with University of Michigan, conduct study of adolescent boys and their attitudes, 23
Boys, attitudes of adolescents toward school and life analyzed in study by University of Michigan and Boy Scouts, 23
"Breaking the Textbook Strait Jacket," by Samuel Lourie, 417
Brickman, Benjamin, on "Functional Grammar in Junior High," 13
Brimm, R. P., on "Maybe We're Doing It Backward," 328
Bronson, Katherine, on "Room 110," 326
Brown, Hamilton W., on "Students Dislike English?" 489
Browning, Robert, explication of his poems, "Meeting at Night," "Parting at Morning," 507
Buck, Paul H., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 145, 148
Buell, Clayton E., on "Industry Supports Education?" 110
"But—Can They Write?" by George G. Dawson, 543

"Can Learners Teach?" by Walter Trasin, 263
Carnegie unit: questioned as basis for determining content of a course, 329; resulted in undesirable control by colleges on secondary-school curriculums, 353
Carr, William G., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 146
"Case for and against Sci-Fi," by Francis E. Abernethy, 474
"Casebook of Counselor Crane," by Alvin W. Howard, 139
Cavanaugh, Sister Michael H., on "Grouping in Depth," 427
Chapline, Allen W., on "Soviet Educators: What Do

They Want to Know About American Education?" 33
Chase, Francis S., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 144, 146
"Chevlin Heights Meets the Challenge," by John F. Ohles, 149
Chilcott, John H., on "The Secondary School of 1985," 371
"Children's Summer-School Theater," by Sydney Wright, 556
"Christmas Party," by Jack Price, 197
"Church and State in a Public School System," by Samuel A. Pleasants, 277
Citizenship training, should be taught in public schools, 455
Clark, William Ross, on "Poems for Teaching," 61, 188, 316, 508
Class cultures, affect behavior and attitudes of children, 521
"Classroom or School Libraries: Must We Choose Between Them?" by Mary K. Jahn, 366
Cobb, Marion M., on "Teaching = 3X's," 549
Cole, Tom J., on "School Library in Action," 493
College applicants, credits offered for admission, 1927 v. 1957, 242
Colleges: influence curriculums and teaching procedures of secondary schools, 515; should clarify their relations with secondary schools, 353; success in, depends upon ability to read, 15
Commercial students, getting good grades is important to their success, 481
Comparative education, see Foreign education
"Competitive Sports and Social Caste," by William J. Fitzpatrick, 526
Compositions, see Writing
Conant, James Bryant: critique of his book, The American High School Today, 178 ff.; participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 148
"Conant Report: a Critique," by Joseph T. Durham, 177
Cooke, George H., on "Learning Is Not for Sale," 103
Cornish, Jane E., editor of "Findings," 102, 152
Corporal punishment, would be permitted in New York State under Corso bill, 95
Corso bill, would permit New York teachers to use corporal punishment, 95
Counseling: can be carried to extremes, when no real probem exists, 139; job opportunities conference at William Penn High School, 471; school library provides opportunities for, 495; students need guidance on military obligations and opportunities, 172
"Courses in Occupations?" by Charles R. Foster, 109
Credit associations, give high-school pilot course on use of credit, 451
"Critical Issues Facing the Junior High School," by James W. Jordon, 237
Critical thinking, must be developed among junior-high students, 456
Curriculum: national conference suggests techniques for improving, 141 ff.; secondary schools not abandoning hard academic subjects, 242; serious problems would arise if high schools had selective admission based on academic qualifications, 149; should we establish a national curriculum commission? 145 ff.
Curriculum definitions, list of 98 educational terms, 358
"Curriculum Improvement, Ltd.," by DeGroff Platte and Edwena Moore, 153

Dawson, George G., asks "But—Can They Write?" 543
"Demolition Job," poem, by A. S. Flaumenhaft, 303
Dennis, Kermit, on "How Many Kinds of Diplomas?" 107
"Developing Critical Thinking in the Junior High School," by Frank T. Arone, 456
"Developing Educational Leaders," by Paul E. Kirsch, 87
Diary of Anne Frank, movie review, 59
Diplomas: must be supplemented by durable record of courses taken and grades obtained, 180; single v. multiple diplomas, 107, 307
Discipline: achieved in pupil-managed classes, 393; New York State's Corso bill would permit use of corporal punishment by teachers, 95; responsibility of the classroom teacher, 527; techniques in classroom control, 286; ultimate goal is self-discipline, 534
"Discipline and Common Sense," by William W. West, 29
"Discipline v. Freedom," by Donald W. Robinson, 90
"Do Colleges Determine What the High Schools Teach?" by Warren C. Seyfert, 515
"Do We Need a 'National Curriculum'?" by Ralph W. Tyler, 141
"Doctrines, Dogmas, and Authority," by Donald W. Robinson, 331
Dodds, John W., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 143, 148
Don Giovanni, TV study guide, 508
Down, Jack, asks "What Do They Think of Us?" 498
Downes, Mildred Gignoux, on "Homework: to Help or Not to Help," 283
Downing, Edna C., on "Latin Is Alive at MSJHS," 229
Drinking, by teachers, 498
Driver education, driving range enables schools to cut per-pupil cost of instruction, 82
Durham, Joseph T., on "The Conant Report: a Critique," 177
Durham, Virginia, on "English Enrichment," 333
DuShane, Graham, participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 144, 148
"Dynamic Eighth Grade, a," by Charles R. Keller, 131

"Edgar Logan," by Mary P. McKenna, 269
Education: cannot be bought and sold, 103; critics unjustified in saying that academic program in high schools is downgraded, 242; heedless critics responsible for five educational "myths," 3; influence of William C. Bagley on, 345 ff.; influence of pressure groups on, 113; many traditional practices should be changed, 328; shortcomings of graduates of fifty years ago, 462; should renew emphasis on students as individuals, 450; target of constant lay criticism, 99, 347; see also Curriculum
"Education: America's Last Chance," by William C. Keane, 355
Education courses: help science teachers develop good attitudes toward science, 176; should not be taught by lecture-recitation method, 51
"Education Is a Slippery Word," by Robert H. Snow, 398

Educational leadership, must be based on ethical values, 387
Educational terms, list of 98 definitions, 358
"Effective Daily Lesson Plan," by Sidney L. Besvinick, 431
Eighth grade, becoming dynamic through experimental curricular changes, 131
Electronics, revolutionizing our lives, 208
Elementary schools, secondary schools could profit from studying some practices of, 328
Elkind, Joel, on "Our First Line of Offense," 70
England, types of secondary education described, 552
"English Enrichment," by Virginia Durham, 333
English teaching: all departments must teach communication skills, 543; "Ballad of an English Teacher in Orbit," 407; can be made interesting and meaningful for students, 489; children must be led to an appreciation of great literature, 343; Conant advocates half of the time should be devoted to English composition, 180; in Moscow's English Experimental School No. 1, 198; preparation for trips afield can implement, 421; problem of finding suitable materials for slow learners, 169; reading a play in class enhanced by classroom stage, 227; reports of TV programs could be assigned for homework, 378; students prefer less regimentation in, 434; see also Letter writing, Poetry, Writing
Entin, Jack W., on "The Narrative Summary," 223
Esposito, Frank, on "Spare the Rod?" 95
Essay contests, not welcomed by school personnel, 136
Essentialist Committee for the Advancement of American Education, William C. Bagley spokesman for, 346
"Ethos of Research, the," by Laurence B. Johnson, 10
"European Secondary Schools," by James G. Umstattd, 74
"Evaluating Classroom Instruction," by Salibelle Royster, 356
"Evaluative Attitudes of Science Teachers," by Carl J. Kleyensteuber, 175
"Events and Opinion," 31, 167, 231, 297, 351, 429, 500
Examinations, should be carefully prepared and evaluated by teachers, 40
Exceptional child: schools must recognize individual differences among students, 419, 450; see also Gifted students
"Experiment in Health Education," by Francis E. Morhous, 215
"Extra Period a Day," by W. L. Shoemaker, 558

"Faculty Photo Gallery," by Marjorie F. Johnson, 159
Fairleigh Dickinson University, new program offers college-level courses for college credit for gifted high-school students, 351
Farley, John J., on "The High-School Library as a Curriculum Material Center," 134
Faust, Clarence Henry, convenes Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 141
Federal aid to education, why essential for financing public schools, 323
"Field of Electronics, the" by Agnes W. Mitchell, 208
"Findings," 102, 152
Fischer, John H., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 147
Fishken, Allen H., on "Tommy Learned to Read," 19
Fitzpatrick, William J., on "Competitive Sports and Social Caste," 526
Flaumenhaft, A. S.: on "Messages for All Occasions," 233; poems: "Afternoon in the Animal Kingdom," 35; "American Valhalla," 73; "Demolition Job," 303
"For a Congressman's Tombstone," poem, by Jacob C. Solovay, 112
Foreign education: Australia's secondary schools, 36; England's public schools and secondary modern schools, 552; European secondary schools, 74; French secondary education, 224; Moscow's English Experimental School No. 1, 198; Soviet educators eager to know about American education, 33; student from Scotland has difficulty adjusting to American teachers, 336
Foreign languages, new methods stress spoken language, 271
Foster, Charles R., on "Courses in Occupations?" 109
Foster, Guy L., on "Tenth-Grade English for Slow Learners," 169
Four Hundred Blows, movie review, 563
Fournier, Gerald A., on "Paradox in Teaching," 411
Freedom v. discipline, 90
French, Will, participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 146
French secondary education, 224
"Functional Grammar in Junior High," by Benjamin Brickman, 13

Gaudreau, Frances M., on "What Shall We Dub a Sub?" 275
"Geography Is Understanding," by Ivan L. Jirak, 327
Gifted students: American high schools must develop special provisions for, 179, 181; at Fairleigh Dickinson University, can take college-level courses while in high school, 351; identification and characteristics of, 45; means of improvising advanced placement program for, 465; must be prevented from underfunctioning, 217; summer school provides English enrichment for fifth and sixth graders, 333; would benefit from grouping in depth, 427; see also Exceptional child
Ginsberg, Louis, poems, "High-School Class," 389; "The Peddler," 213
Gordon, Ted, editor of "Tricks of the Trade," 22, 81, 214, 282, 342, 424
"Graduates of the Good Old Days," by J. R. Shannon, 462
Grammar: functional presentation of, advocated for junior high, 13; traditional method of teaching it should be discontinued, 519
Green, John A., on "The Myths of Education," 3
Green, Joseph, editor of "Events and Opinion," 32, 168, 232, 298, 352, 430, 501
Griffin, Michael T., on "Those Letters of Recommendation!" 195
Groteluschen, Ruth (coauthor), on "Why I Am a Teacher," 97
Grouping, enables all students to learn better, 467
"Grouping by Differences," by Margaret Klemola, 235
"Grouping in Depth," by Sister Michael H. Cavanaugh, 427
Guidance, see Counseling

Hanna, Paul R., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 143
Hawaii, list of available free materials on, 539
Hazard, Leland, participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 145-46
Health education, classes conducted by local doctors in Schenectady high school, 215
Hendry, Lorena W., on "Parents and Their Children," 294
Henley, William Ernest, explication of his poem, "Invictus," 187
"Hidden Tuition Costs in Florida," by Vynce A. Hines, 304
"High-School Class," poem, by Louis Ginsberg, 389
"High-School Library as a Curriculum Material Center," by John J. Farley, 134
High schools, American: curriculums and teaching procedures determined by college admission requirements, 515; marked changes foreseen by 1985, 371; should clarify their relations with colleges, 353; surveyed by James Bryant Conant in The American High School Today, 177-181
Hines, Vynce A., on "Hidden Tuition Costs in Florida," 304
"History off the Hook!" by J. R. Shannon, 99
Holden, A. John, Jr., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 143, 148
Holland, Howard K., on "Interior Marks of Great Teachers," 165
Homework, research assignments often given without sufficient instructions by teacher, 261
"Homework: to Help or Not to Help," by Mildred Gignoux Downes, 283
Hoover, Kenneth H., on "Lecturing: a Wedge Between Theory and Practice," 51
Housman, A. E., explication of his poem, "Loveliest of Trees," 60
"How a School System Can Avoid an Advanced Placement Program," by Jack Price, 465
"How Many Kinds of Diplomas?" by Kermit Dennis, 107
"How of Writing Impromptu, the," by James J. Lynch, 482
Howard, Alvin W.: on "The Casebook of Counselor Crane," 139; (coauthor) on "You Can Teach Reading, 545
Hudson, Jessie, on "Professor's Shock Treatment," 537
Hughes, D. Patrick, on the in-service educational program at Liverpool Central Schools, New York, 332
Humanities, as essential to modern curriculum as is science, 450
"Humanities Today," 59, 123, 187, 251, 315, 378, 442, 507, 562
Humor, of teen-agers, 547

"I Don't Mistrust All Psychologists!" by Gerald Raftery, 211; rejoinders, 500, 528
"I Had to Use a Tape Recorder," by Jean Barnes, 245
Ideal teacher, as pictured by junior-high students, 26
"Ignore the Social Studies?" by Thomas C. Barham, 453
"Importance of Nondoing," by Donald W. Robinson, 390
"In Defense of Teen-Age Humor," by Gerald Raftery, 547
"In Praise of Bagley," by William J. Pauli, 345
In-service educational program, successful techniques used in Liverpool, New York, 332
"Individuality," by Martin Carl Klimko, 115
"Industry Supports Education?" by Clayton E. Buell, 110
"Influence of the Teacher," by Richard Thompson, 491
Installment buying, credit bureaus in Fresno, California, give high-school course on use of credit, 451
"Interior Marks of Great Teachers," by Howard K. Holland, 165
"Invictus," explication of Henley's poem, 187
Irwin, Forrest A., book review editor, 54, 118, 182, 247, 310, 373, 436, 502, 559
"Is Your Pedagogical Halo Showing?" by Albert Nissman, 433
"It's Time to Study Time Payments," by Wilbur S. Beasley, 451
"Ivan Learns English," by Walter V. Kaulfers, 198

Jahn, Mary K., on "Classroom or School Libraries: Must We Choose Between Them?" 366
Jarvis, Galen M., on "The Pupil and the Teacher," 530
Jirak, Ivan L., on "Geography Is Understanding," 327
Job application blanks, filled out in senior business English class, 116
Job opportunities conference, how organized at William Penn High School, 471
Johnson, Laurence B., on "The Ethos of Research," 10
Johnson, Marjorie F., on "A Faculty Photo Gallery," 159
Johnson, Patricia (coauthor), on "You Can Teach Reading," 545
Jones, Alfred K., on teacher problem clinic, 216
Jordon, James W., on "Critical Issues Facing the Junior High School," 237
"Junior High School Students Reflect on the Ideal Teacher," by Harry H. Matlack, 26
Junior high schools: advantages of functional presentation of grammar in, 13; have many crucial problems, 237; reasons why they have failed to achieve maturity, 301; sample of lesson plans designed to induce critical thinking by students, 456; self-appraisal of students typically leads them to ask three fundamental questions, 156; see also Eighth grade

Kaulfers, Walter V., on "Ivan Learns English," 198
Keane, William G., on "Education: America's Last Chance," 355
Keller, Charles R.: on "A Dynamic Eighth Grade," 131; on "School Administrators," 289
"Kids Will Be Kids," by Martin Tonn, 419
Kinnick, B. Jo, on "Ballad of an English Teacher in Orbit," 407
Kirsch, Paul E., on "Developing Educational Leaders," 87
Klemola, Margaret, on "Grouping by Differences," 235
Kleyensteuber, Carl J., on "Evaluative Attitudes of Science Teachers," 175
Klimko, Martin Carl, on "Individuality," 115
Klinger, Herbert F. K., on "Learning by Overdoing," 408
Klingmeyer, Faye M., on "Paperbacks and Hardbacks," 415
Krall, George M.: on "Three Questions Asked by

Early Adolescents," 156; asks "What About Discipline?" 534

Lambert, Sam M., on "Needed: a Third Full-Time Partner in Financing Public Education," 323
Language arts, see English teaching, Grammar, Reading
Language laboratory, value of, 273
Lare, Everett B., editor of "Audio-Visual News," 62, 126, 190, 254, 318, 382, 446, 511, 566
Larsen, Jack L., on "To Group or Not to Group," 467
"Latin Is Alive at MSJHS," by Edna C. Downing, 229
Leadership, educational administration needs moral purpose, 387
Leadership training, in-service program available for Schenectady teachers, 87
"Learning by Overdoing," by H. F. K. Klinger, 408
"Learning Is Not for Sale," by George H. Cooke, 103
"Lecturing: a Wedge Between Theory and Practice," by Kenneth H. Hoover, 51
Leibson, Bernard, on "Are Our Schools Doing Too Much?" 49
Leipold, L. Edmond, on "Students Do Have Favorite Teachers," 240
Lerch, Harold H., on "Academic Rigor: 1927 v. 1957," 242
Lesson plans, some criteria for, 431
Lessons, causes for failures in teaching of, 71
"Letter to a New English Teacher," by June Berry, 343
Letter writing: by children, should be original, 233; perfection the goal in unique unit in, 279
Letters of recommendation, often composed with tongue in cheek, 195
Librarians: as salesmen for paperbacks, 415; should serve also as instructional materials experts in secondary schools, 135
Libraries: all curriculum materials should be centered in, 134; disadvantages in decentralizing school libraries, 366; guidance function of, 493; impracticality of providing suitable background music in, 259
Lindner, Mabel, on "Your Speech Reveals You," 299
Little red schoolhouse, still performing service in education, 78
"Lloyd Sanford and His Schooling," by Robert E. Belding, 552
Logan, Edgar: on "Salute to the Little Red Schoolhouse," 78; on "Teaching Poetry: Tears or Triumph?" 266; thumbnail sketch of, 269
London, Herman E., on "Slam Books," 349
Loughery, William R., on "Military Obligations of Youth," 172
Lounsbury, John H., on "What Keeps Junior from Growing Up?" 301
Lourie, Samuel, on "Breaking the Textbook Strait Jacket," 417
"Loveliest of Trees," explication of Housman's poem, 60
Lower-class children: behavior and attitudes of, 521; interested in competitive team athletics, 526
"Loyalty Oaths for Teachers?" by J. K. Roach, 105
Lynch, James J., on "The How of Writing Impromptu," 482

McKenna, Mary P., on "Edgar Logan," 269
McLeod, A. L., on "Australia's Secondary Schools Are Not Regarded as Exemplary," 36

Malkin, Samuel, on "The Organization and Objectives of a Job Opportunities Conference," 471
Maloney, Henry B., associate editor of "The Humanities Today," 59, 123, 187, 251, 315, 378, 442, 507, 562
March, Leland S., on "Motivation—the Key to Good Teaching," 67
Master teachers, modified plan devised for a Brooklyn junior high school, 425
Matlack, Harry H., on "Junior High School Students Reflect on the Ideal Teacher," 26
"Maybe We're Doing It Backward," by R. P. Brimm, 328
Mayr, Grace A., on "They Ask Such Personal Questions!" 116
"Meeting at Night," explication of Browning's poem, 507
Mehlman, Maurice, on "Modified Master Teaching Plan," 425
Mental health, emotional health essential for effective intellectual effort, 331
"Messages for All Occasions," by A. S. Flaumenhaft, 233
MFL teaching, see Foreign languages
Michaels, Herbert, on "Thoughts on Discipline," 286
Michigan, University of, with Boy Scouts, conducts study of adolescent boys and their attitudes, 23
Middle-class children: behavior and attitudes of, 521; lack interest in competitive team athletics, 526
Mikado, TV study guide, 508
"Military Obligations of Youth," by William R. Loughery, 172
Miller, Helen Rand, on "Typewriters Give Slow Readers a New Start," 94
Miller, Norma R., on "What's Wrong with Essay Contests?" 136
Mitchell, Agnes W., on "The Field of Electronics," 208
"Modified Master Teaching Plan," by Maurice Mehlman, 425
Moore, Edwena (coauthor), on "Curriculum Improvement, Ltd.," 153
"Moral Aspects of Educational Leadership," by F. Willard Robinson, 387
"More to Know About Hawaii," by Frank T. Arone, 539
Morgan, James H., on "The Teacher and the Gifted," 217
Morhous, Francis E., on "Experiment in Health Education," 215
Motion pictures, should not be converted to TV plays, 251
"Motivation—the Key to Good Teaching," by Leland S. March, 67
Mueller, Theodore, on "New Trends in MFL Teaching," 271
Munz, Martin H., on "The Redlands Guide," 292
Murray-Metcalf Bill, favored by educators seeking federal support for education, 325
Music, as background in school library, 259
"Myths of Education," by John A. Green, 3

"Narrative Summary," by Jack W. Entin, 223
"Natives Are Restless, the," by Gerald Raftery, 259
"Needed: a Third Full-Time Partner in Financing Public Education," by Sam M. Lambert, 323
"New Trends in MFL Teaching," by Theodore Mueller, 271
Newman, Paul J., on "Better School-College Relations," 353

"98 Curriculum Definitions," by Benjamin J. Novak, 358
Nissman, Albert: on "An Act of Learning," 336; on "Is Your Pedagogical Halo Showing?" 435
Novak, Benjamin J., on "98 Curriculum Definitions," 358

Occupational information, not sufficiently available in secondary schools, 109
O'Connor, Marie E., on "The Postmaster General Supervises Letter Writing," 279
Ohles, John F., on "The School Crisis: Chevlin Heights Meets the Challenge," 149
Olcott, William, on "The Case for Teaching Government in the Public Schools," 455
Oliver Twist, TV study guide, 188
On the Beach, movie review, 442
Onorevole, Richard E., on "Poetry in Three Dimensions," 478
"Organization and Objectives of a Job Opportunities Conference," by Samuel Malkin, 471
"Our World-Wide Responsibilities," by Kathryne Baugh, 202

"Paperbacks and Hardbacks," by Faye M. Klingmeyer, 415
"Parable of Two English Teachers," by Onas Scandrette, 434
"Paradox in Teaching," by Gerald A. Fournier, 411
"Parents and Their Children," by Lorena W. Hendry, 294
"Parting at Morning," explication of Browning's poem, 507
Pauli, William J., writes "In Praise of Bagley," 345
"Peddler, the," poem, by Louis Ginsberg, 213
Penk, G. L.: on "Range Plan for Driver Training," 82; on "Treetown Adopts Multiple Diplomas," 307
Peters, Herman J., on "Some Key Sources of Error in Test Administration," 161
Phonics, has never been abandoned in teaching reading, 19
Photographic gallery, illustrated roster of school faculty can serve useful purpose for the staff, 159
Platte, DeGroff (coauthor), on "Curriculum Improvement, Ltd.," 153
"Play of the Week," worth-while TV experiment, 315
Play reading, enhanced by construction of classroom stage, 227
Pleasants, Samuel A., on "Church and State in a Public School System," 277
"Poems for Teaching": "Invictus" by William Ernest Henley, 187; "Loveliest of Trees" by A. E. Housman, 60; "Meeting at Night," "Parting at Morning" by Robert Browning, 507; "Sonnet CXVI" by William Shakespeare, 316
Poetry: if first encouraged to write original verses, students react more favorably to textbook study of, 266; students need not dislike study of, 489, 490
"Poetry in Three Dimensions," by Richard E. Onorevole, 478
"Postmaster General Supervises Letter Writing," by Marie E. O'Connor, 279
"Pressure Groups and Their Influence on Public Education," by Sidney P. Rollins, 113
Price, Jack: on "A Christmas Party: First Aid for a Sagging Adult Program," 197; on "How a School System Can Avoid an Advanced Placement Program," 465
Problem clinic, set up in Indianapolis high school to help teachers who have problems of instruction, 216
Professional education courses, see Education courses
"Professor's Shock Treatment," by Jessie Hudson, 537
"Profile of an Educational Paradox," by Sister Therese Margaret Roberts, 357
"Prospective Teachers Have Fears," by Harold S. Anderson, 337
Psychiatrists, see Psychologists
Psychologists: lack requisite experience in dealing with children, 211; valuable members of school staffs, 528
"Pupil and the Teacher, the," by Galen M. Jarvis, 530
"Pupil-Managed Classes," by Ralph C. Wehlitz, 393
"Pupil Talk," by Edgar F. Ross, 369

Quillen, I. James, participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 143

Raftery, Gerald: on "I Don't Mistrust All Psychologists!" 211; rejoinders, 500, 528; on "The Natives Are Restless," 259; writes "In Defense of Teen-Age Humor," 547
"Range Plan for Driver Training," by G. L. Penk, 82
Reading: can be taught to seventh graders without experts, 545; pupils need to acquire skill of independent study-type reading, 15; slow learners present special problem, 169; teaching tenth-grade student to read, 19; typewriters give slow readers a new start, 94
"Reading a Play in Class," by Robert Shostak, 227
"Reading Skills of College Entrants," by John R. Anderson, 15
Recommendation, letters of, recipients must read between the lines of, 195
"Redlands Guide," by Martin H. Munz, 292
"Regeneration," editorial by Ellsworth Tompkins, 450
"Released time," U. S. Supreme Court has failed to establish clear-cut policy as to legality of, 277
Religious instruction in schools, U. S. Supreme Court has not yet settled legality of, 277
"Réné's Schooling," by Robert E. Belding, 224
Research, reasons for gap between research and consuming public, 10
Rieger, Audrey, on "Who Are the Gifted? What Are They Like?" 45
Roach, J. K., on "Loyalty Oaths for Teachers?" 105
Roberts, Ora H., Jr., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 147
Roberts, Sister Therese Margaret, on "Profile of an Educational Paradox," 357
Robinson, Donald W.: on "Discipline v. Freedom," 90; on "Tough Assignment," 261; on "Doctrines, Dogmas, and Authority," 331; on "The Importance of Nondoing," 390; on "Who's to Blame for Joe?" 391; on "Teacher, Dick, and Harry," 391
Robinson, F. Willard, on "Moral Aspects of Educational Leadership," 387
Rogues' gallery, can be adapted as useful faculty roster, 159
Rollins, Sidney P., on "Pressure Groups and Their Influence on Public Education," 113

"Room 110," by Katherine Bronson, 326
Ross, Edgar F., on "Pupil Talk," 369
Royster, Salibelle, on "Evaluating Classroom Instruction," 356
Rural schools, not completely eliminated yet by consolidated schools, 78
Russian educators: conduct English experimental school in Moscow, 198; eager to know about American education, 33

Sacco-Vanzetti trial, to be subject of TV documentary drama, 562
"Salute to the Little Red Schoolhouse," by Edgar Logan, 78
Sarner, David S., on "Why 180 Days of School?" 181
Scandrette, Onas, on "Parable of Two English Teachers," 434
Schlosser, J. Jerome, poem, "To Teach or Not to Teach," 164
"School Administrators," by Charles R. Keller, 289
School buildings, rural v. consolidated schools, 78
"School Crisis: Chevlin Heights Meets the Challenge," by John F. Ohles, 149
"School Library in Action," by Tom J. Cole, 493
"School Psychologists—a Rejoinder," by Jack I. Bardon, 528
School tours, study of English aided by advance preparations for, 421
School year, why 180 days of school? 181
Schools, should concentrate on directed learning of achievable curriculum, 49
Schultz, Theodore W., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 142, 148
Science: advantages and shortcomings of TV instruction in, 6; more important to teach methods than facts of, 531; should not dominate curriculum, 450
Science fiction, arguments for and against its use in high schools, 474
Science teachers, need pedagogical training as well as subject-matter competence, 175
"Screenings": Ben-Hur, 442; The Diary of Ann Frank, 59; The 400 Blows, 563; On the Beach, 442
"Secondary School of 1985, the," by John H. Chilcott, 371
Seyfert, Warren C., asks "Do Colleges Determine What the High Schools Teach?" 515
Shakespeare, William, explication of his Sonnet CXVI, 316
Shannon, J. R.: on "History Off the Hook!" 99; on "Graduates of the Good Old Days," 462
Shapiro, Alan, on "Social Class Theory," 521
"Sharpening the Measuring Instrument," by Carl H. Weaver, 40
Shayon, Robert Lewis, participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 146
Shoemaker, W. L., on "An Extra Period a Day," 558
Shostak, Robert, on "Reading a Play in Class," 227
"Slam Books," by Herman E. London, 349
Slow learners, suitable teaching materials in English must be found for, 169; see also Lower-class children
Snow, Robert H., on "Education Is a Slippery Word," 398
"Social Class Theory," by Alan Shapiro, 521
Social sciences, school curriculums need to be updated, 453
Socioeconomic status: affects attitudes toward competitive team athletics, 526; affects behavior of children, 521
Sociology, studies of class cultures are affecting educational theory, 521
Solovay, Joseph C., poems, "For a Congressman's Tombstone," 112; "The Teacher Confesses to the Class," 452
"Some Key Sources of Error in Test Administration," by Herman J. Peters, 161
Sonnet CXVI, explication of Shakespeare's sonnet, 316
"Soviet Educators: What Do They Want to Know About American Education?" by Allen W. Chapline, 33
"Spare the Rod?" by Frank Esposito, 95
Speech, reflects personality and culture of speaker, 299
Sports, see Athletics
Sports nights, school facilities made available to community in evening, 111
Students, as teachers of their fellow pupils, 263
"Students Dislike English?" by Hamilton W. Brown, 489
"Students Do Have Favorite Teachers," by L. Edmond Leipold, 240
Study halls, less able students waste time in, 328
Substitute teachers: face many problems, 275; use of pupils to manage class in lieu of, 393
Summer school: provides English enrichment for gifted fifth and sixth graders, 333; provides opportunity for children's theater, 556
Swineford, Edwin J., on "Autopsy of a Dead Lesson," 71

Tallman, Marion L., on "Travel as Motivation in English," 421
Tape recorder, used by sick teacher to instruct Latin classes during her absence, 245
"Teacher and the Gifted, the," by James H. Morgan, 217
"Teacher Confesses to the Class, the," poem, by Jacob C. Solovay, 452
"Teacher, Dick, and Harry," by Donald W. Robinson, 391
"Teacher Is a Stagehand," by Joseph E. Walker, 401
Teacher preparation, attitude of colleges important factor in, 517
Teachers: anxieties of prospective teachers analyzed, 337; best spokesmen for public schools, 70; can exert great influence on students, 491; carefully watched by businessmen at cocktail party, 498; great ones characterized by fine inner qualities, 165; junior-high students describe their ideal teacher, 26; must adapt their techniques to ability group they are teaching, 469; qualities to watch for in evaluation of classroom performance, 356; should apply techniques for motivating students, 67; students state qualities they like and dislike in, 240; students teach their fellow pupils, 263
Teachers colleges: should not use lecture-recitation technique, 51; should recognize that teachers need different approach for teaching lower-class children, 524
Teaching: fumblings of teacher who lacked knowledge of his subject, 411; why chosen as a career, 97
"Teaching = 3X's," by Marion M. Cobb, 549
"Teaching Poetry: Tears or Triumph?" by Edgar Logan, 266

"Teaching Science by Television," by Maurice U. Ames, 6
Teen-agers: exhibit odd sense of humor, 547; lacking parental guidance, they become problems in the classroom, 294; see also Adolescents
Television: being used effectively to enrich science teaching, 6; see also TV
"Tenth-Grade English for Slow Learners," by Guy L. Foster, 169
Tests: secondary schools being forced by colleges to do too much standardized testing, 515; seven potential sources of error in test administration, 161; should be carefully prepared and evaluated by teachers, 40
Textbooks: influence of college teachers on, 519; students should learn to read them critically, 417
Theater, summer-school children's theater in Eau Claire, Wisconsin, 556
"They Ask Such Personal Questions!" by Grace A. Mayr, 116
Thompson, Richard, on "The Influence of the Teacher," 491
"Those Letters of Recommendation!" by Michael T. Griffin, 195
"Thoughts on Discipline," by Herbert Michaels, 286
"Three Questions Asked by Early Adolescents," by George M. Krall, 156
"Three Sermonettes," by Donald W. Robinson, 390
"To Group or Not to Group," by Jack L. Larsen, 467
"To Teach or Not to Teach," poem, by J. Jerome Schlosser, 164
"Tommy Learned to Read," by Allen H. Fishken, 19
Tompkins, Ellsworth, on need for emphasis on student as an individual, 450
Tompkins, Virgil E., on "The B.C.H.S. Men's Association," 494
Tonn, Martin, on "Kids Will Be Kids," 419
"Tough Assignment," by Donald W. Robinson, 261
Toy, Henry, Jr., participates in Conference on Policies and Strategy for Strengthening the Curriculum of the American Public Schools, 143
Trasin, Walter, asks "Can Learners Teach?" 263
"Travel as Motivation in English," by Marion L. Tallman, 421
"Treetown Adopts Multiple Diplomas," by G. L. Penk, 307
"Tricks of the Trade," 22, 81, 214, 282, 342, 424
Tuition, students face many extra expenses in high schools, 304
TV, see also Television
"TV and Newer Media": conversion of movies to TV plays, 251; Don Giovanni and The Mikado, study guides, 508; English teachers could well assign reports of TV programs for homework, 378; Oliver Twist, study guide, 188; "The Play of the Week" a worth-while experiment, 315; Sacco-Vanzetti documentary drama, 562; "TV Discernment—a Six-Day Plan," 123
Tyler, Ralph W., asks "Do We Need a 'National Curriculum'?" 141
"Typewriters Give Slow Readers a New Start," by Helen Rand Miller, 94

Umstattd, James G., on "European Secondary Schools," 74
United States history: course in American history leads junior-high students to unusual activities, 408; high-school course should conclude with unit on world-wide responsibilities of U.S. today, 202 ff.
United States Supreme Court, analysis of three decisions on legality of "released time" in schools, 277

Van Tamelen, Mary, on assigning reports of TV programs for homework in English, 378
"Verse on My Teaching Day," poem, by Martin Wolfson, 330
"Virus 'W,'" by Amelia Jo Wier, 495
Vocational guidance, hampered by lack of occupational information, 109

Walker, Joseph E., on "Teacher Is a Stagehand," 401
"We Call It Sports Night," by Ross J. Willink, 111
Weaver, Carl H., on "Sharpening the Measuring Instrument," 40
Wehlitz, Ralph C., on "Pupil-Managed Classes," 393
Weiss, Thomas M., on "Attitudes Toward Science Teaching," 531
West, William W., on "Discipline and Common Sense," 29
"What About Discipline?" by George M. Krall, 534
"What Do They Think of Us?" by Jack Down, 498
"What Keeps Junior from Growing Up?" by John H. Lounsbury, 301
"What Shall We Dub a Sub?" by Frances M. Gaudreau, 275
"What's Wrong with Essay Contests?" by Norma R. Miller, 136
Whittemore, R. G., on "'Poor' Discipline," 527
"Who Are the Gifted? What Are They Like?" by Audrey Rieger, 45
"Who's to Blame for Joe?" by Donald W. Robinson, 391
"Why I Am a Teacher," by Ruth Groteluschen with Phyllis M. Barnett, 97
Wier, Amelia Jo, on "The Virus 'W.'" 495
Willink, Ross J., on "We Call It Sports Night," 111
Wolfson, Martin, poem, "Verse on My Teaching Day," 330
Workbooks, poor teaching technique, 495
Wright, Sydney, on "Children's Summer-School Theater," 556
Writing: how to write compositions under examination conditions, 482; students do poorly in, 543

"You Can Teach Reading," by Patricia Johnson and Alvin W. Howard, 545
"Your Speech Reveals You," by Mabel Lindner, 299